Bad luck

Supper at the Grapevine can be great so we went out to dinner, me and my mate

A guy at our table was chatting away, then he pulled out a gun, so we didn't stay

Bad luck, it was just bad luck

I was going 'bout my business and was thunderstruck

On the highway of life I was hit by a truck,

I'm telling you it's just bad luck, just bad luck

Finally holiday, I went by car me and a friend, but we didn't get far

Holiday traffic can be to much when you're in an old Saab without a clutch

Bad luck, it was just bad luck

I was going 'bout my business and I just got stuck

On the highway of life I was hit by a truck,

I'm telling you it's just bad luck, just bad luck

I went on a trip on a road I like, a warm summer evening on my motorbike

Along came a car someone sleeping at the wheel, put me in hospital, my usual deal

I brought a girl on a north sea cruise but I didn't check the forecast, didn't watch the news

In romantic moonlight I would tell her how I feel but she stayed in the bathroom watching yesterdays meal

Bad luck, it was just bad luck

I was going 'bout my business and was thunderstruck

On the highway of life I was hit by a truck,

Down at the pub a girl is flirting with me, and I'm flirting back, obviously She's all smiles and kisses but I am confused

Autumn is the time to fall

When your love is a heartache and your ache is a pain

Get up for heavens sake and get out in the rain

Get out in the rain

Get out in the rain because Lay it on the line, be brave and tall

Autumn is the time to fall

Try or take your place in the losers hall

Autumn is the time to fall

of fame, and have yourself to blame

Lately things don't seem quite right,

I can't grasp what's in my sight

The world seems warped and out of place and we're all caught in this rat race

I miss my friends and there's no space,

I'm doing circles in a maze

The world seems kind of small to me tonight

I used to hang with lots of friends, go with the flow to where it ends

Now it's all the same to me, the same warped things are all I see

The sun comes up to fast, and then suddenly it's dark again

I know there's something weird going on tonight

I remember when I felt so free, plancton, my 300 cousins and me

Then it happened suddenly, caught in a web I couldn't see

Now I know I'm one lost soul swimming in an empty bowl

I know I'm really up shit creek tonight

I know I'm really up shit creek tonight

Fjugils place

Fjugil was a viking of the sea looking for a home like you and me

Plundering and killing was a mess, so he built a cabin in the wilderness

Life was rather hard in Fjugils home, slaying in the forest all alone

Feeding of deer where wolf packs roam, king of his shack with a rock for a throne

But the cool waters of the many lakes

Lyrics

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 28 November 2009 15:05 - Last Updated Friday, 18 December 2009 23:18

would lift his spirit when a new day breaks

By the blue mountains, where the badgers roam

is a humble place that Fjugil calls home

Going to the market far away,

Fjugil had to find a place to stay

Plundering a farm along the way, the farmers daughter stole his heart away

Fjugils home grew big when children came, had to keep them dry in wind and rain

People started hearing of Fjugils dream,

Lyrics

a little village grew beside the stream

And the cool waters of the many lakes would lift their spirits when a new day breaks

By the blue mountains, where the badgers roam

Viking skills of old didn't work no more, death going berserk wasn't much called for

When farming for food really raised the stakes, they chopped down the forests and they drained the lakes

Through the centuries the farmlands grew, not much like the place that Fjugil knew

People didn't starve and life was good, no more vikings in the neighborhood

No cool waters, and no more lakes to lift your spirit when a new day breaks

By the blue mountains, where the badgers roam

is a humble place that Fjugil called home

If you venture out to Fjugils place you can catch your breath and ease your pace

Not to many people in Fjugils place

Moonshine liquor and a tractor race...

Party of one

Cruising along at a comfortable speed

I don't get what I want but I've got what I need Taking it easy – I don't need no one

Keeping the peace – nothing going on

I'm throwing a party of one

Taking it easy

Trying to make it all alone again

I'm not really crazy

Maybe just a little bit lazy

Taking it easy – I don't hurt no one Waisting my days here – nothing going on at it it really doesn't

This is not a love
song

It's more a thinking of
– song

I couldn't write you
one of those

to save my life, so here goes...

I created a diversion, I'm a very private person

but your army was persistent and they made a long excursion

My fortress under siege, and in spite of my subversion

I really was enjoying your attention and assertion

But this is not a love
song

It's more a thinking of
– song

I couldn't write you
one of those

to save my life, so
here goes...

Hiding in the trenches I would wait for reenforcement

Plans were made in secret when I yearned for your endorsement

Defeat was certain so we had agreed to an arrangement,

white flag shown according to the rules of engagement

All is fair in love and war is often said and sung before

Not sure what I'm fighting for,

I sent my army out the door

song

It's more a thinking of
– song

I couldn't write you
one of those

to save my life, so
here goes...

Chicken shit bullshit

You only reap what you sow

The water's deep and you don't know when to stay and when to go

Shadows filled with eyes that glow

Sun outside and fear inside

All the pain you try to hide

Your head low and your eyes wide

Why do you swallow your pride?

Don't give me that

Don't give me that

Don't give me that

We're all caught here under the bull
whip,

so please don't give that chicken shit
bullshit

When you pass me on the street

we don't stand a chance to meet

So afraid, so discrete

Eyes fixed solid on your feet

Though you lust for fame and wealth, you doubt your friends and you doubt your health

Hide away behind your stealth

Most of all you doubt yourself

So don't give me

Don't give me that

Don't give me that

We're all caught
whip,

bullshit
